| Content description: | The legal obligation of a witness to testify in criminal files is fair and equitable as long as there are no threats putting at risk the life, bodily integrity, freedom, assets, or professional activity of the witness or any of his/her family members upon the fulfillment of this obligation. Witness protection is required all the more since the evolution of organized crime has led to increased intimidations and violence against witnesses.. | | |
| Keywords: | Witness, criminal files, witness protection, intimidations, risk, Romanian realities | | |
